HUNTSMAN SPRINGS ANNOUNCES NEW WELLNESS CENTER TO OPEN JUNE, 2014

DRIGGS, IDAHO (March 10, 2014) Huntsman Springs, the award-winning family resort destination in Idaho's scenic Teton Valley, has announced plans for the grand opening of its 4,500 square-foot Springs Wellness Center and Spa in June. Open for year-round use by property owners and their guests, the Wellness Center will also offer a social membership available to members of the public.

“Our new Wellness Center will be the community hub of family activity, as well as a place of relaxation and rejuvenation where one can focus on mind, body and soul renourishment,” said Huntsman Springs Designated Broker Julie Bryan.

The Springs Wellness Center and Spa feature a state-of-the-art fitness facility offering TechnoGym® equipment, private fitness coaching, and classes on topics such as holistic nutrition, wellness coaching, yoga and more. Personal services, such as massages, manicures/pedicures and facials also are offered. At the Wellness Center's market and water bar, patrons can enjoy healthy sandwiches and wraps, freshly prepared foods and spa products.

Outside, overlooking the Tetons and the tenth hole of the golf course, is a large swimming pool for laps or simply relaxing, as well as a shallow children's water play area for youngsters. There are multiple hot tubs, including one that will stay open through the winter. The Watering Hole, an inviting poolside bar and grill, offers an eclectic menu ranging from chicken fingers for kids to healthful comfort food and tasty beverages distinctive to Huntsman Springs.
